

Ford Motor Company To Host Ford University Conference Call

What: “Ford University” Conference Call

When: Friday, July 15, 10:00 a.m. EDT until 11:30 a.m. EDT

Summary: Ford University is an annual event focused on enhancing investors’ understanding of Ford Motor Company’s financial reporting. Among other topics, this year’s presentation will describe changes to Ford’s sector and segment reporting effective with the Second Quarter 2016 results, provide an overview of how Ford Credit accounts for leases and will discuss non-GAAP financial measures used by Ford.

John Lawler, Ford vice president and controller, and Marion Harris, Ford Credit chief financial officer, will host the call.

The presentation (listen-only) and supporting materials will be available at www.shareholder.ford.com. Representatives of the investment community will have the opportunity to ask questions after the presentation.
